

Cal State East Bay (CSUEB) is the second largest public university in California with the distinction of providing a high quality and effective leadership for a diverse student population in order to make sound decisions for the betterment of CSUEB students and greater CSUEB community, and

WHEREAS, Cal State East Bay has been declared one of the most diverse public universities in the nation, the commission in the spirit of shared governance and inclusion values

RESOLVED, that the African American Resource Center be established as a permanent, independent, and self-governing entity within the university community to provide a safe and supportive environment for African American students, faculty, and staff, and to promote the academic and personal success of African American students.

IT IS THE POLICY OF CAL STATE EAST BAY TO SUPPORT AND ENHANCE THE ACADEMIC AND PERSONAL SUCCESS OF ALL STUDENTS, AND TO PROVIDE A SAFE AND SUPPORTIVE ENVIRONMENT FOR ALL STUDENTS.

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS, INC.

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY EAST BAY

2500 Webster Rd., Hayward, CA 94542, Phone: (415) 881-5100, Fax: (415) 881-5115, Email: ast@csueastbay.edu

WHEREAS, California and Union Federal's upcoming Bank of America program will support the academic success of CSUEB's Black/African-American students, it's primary purpose is to Black/African-American students participate in the program.

place of or for all employees, staff, faculty, and the University Police Department and the California State is working for Students!

Students