

RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF REGENTS

WHEREAS, the Board of Regents of the University of California has approved the conversion of the University of California, San Diego (UCSD) to a semester system, and

WHEREAS, the Board of Regents of the University of California has approved the conversion of the University of California, San Diego (UCSD) to a semester system, and

WHEREAS, the Board of Regents of the University of California has approved the conversion of the University of California, San Diego (UCSD) to a semester system, and

WHEREAS, the Board of Regents of the University of California has approved the conversion of the University of California, San Diego (UCSD) to a semester system, and

WHEREAS, CSUEB and California State Polytechnic University, Pomona, are currently operating as a semester-wide school system in Fall

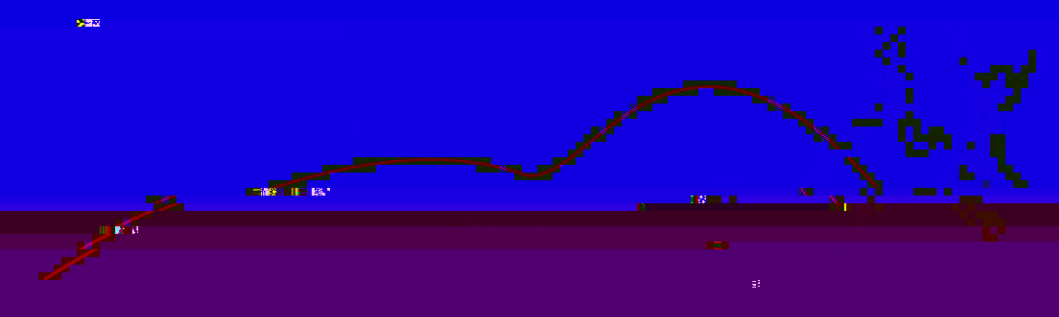

WHEREAS, the Semester Conversion Steering Committee has created a conversion plan that will be provided and CSUEB will maintain the quality of education

WHEREAS, other colleges across the nation, like St. Mary's, have implemented successful college/university conversions to improve will be transitioning from a

Student Package, which has structured a quarter system and academic programs, and

College and the University of the Pacific, have student organizations

Approved on: 6/21/2015

ASI President: [Signature]

